Santigold to headline Sony Entertainment Network Ibiza

Brooklyn-based artist/ singer, Santigold, has been confirmed to play a free intimate gig as part of Sony Entertainment Network Ibiza, a series of music, film and gaming events taking place on the White Isle, 17-26 August.

Having launched her genre-defying, epic second album, Master of My Make-Believe, earlier this year, Santigold will play to an audience of around 250 against the sun-drenched backdrop of Es Vive's famously hedonistic Art Deco setting.

"I'm really looking forward to the gig and playing the new album to Ibiza for the first time," said Santigold.

"I've never been there before. I've heard it's a real dance-party capital, so I'm interested to see it all in action. I'm excited to bring something fresh to the island."

As well as free tickets to the gig, we're offering fans the chance for them and a friend to enjoy the holiday of a lifetime with three nights at luxury hotel, Ushuaia, complete with €1,000 spending money and some of the world's hottest DJs in residence, including David Guetta and Swedish House Mafia.

Film fans can see out the day after the night before as we go poolside with some of the freshest blockbusters, as well as sizzling summer classics handpicked from the Video Unlimited service's massive library of some of the finest films ever made.

For those in need of a quick gaming fix, we'll be hosting unique outdoor challenges and showing off the latest releases from the PlayStation®Store.

To get you in the mood, we're even creating a dedicated Ibiza Channel on the Music Unlimited service, complete with the biggest Ibiza anthems, hottest new electronic music and your favourite dance classics.

To jet off to the party capital of the world for the holiday of a lifetime, check out sonyentertainmentnetwork.com/ibiza and upload a picture of anything that 'entertains you.' It could be a best mate in their favourite fancy dress costume, an incredible festival moment, or a surfing dog, anything that gives a warm feeling inside. The ten best entries as judged by us will be put to a vote. Fans decide who wins.
