Smart Blu-ray Disc™ Players from Sony connect with great entertainment

- Cutting-edge new styling inspired by Sense of Quartz to harmonise with your new BRAVIA TV
- Enhanced Wi-Fi connectivity with stronger signal reception and extended range
- Internet-enabled with smart access to wide range of streaming music, video and interactive services
- Browse online content & services with TV SideView mobile app

Home entertainment has never looked better with four sensationally styled new Smart Blu-ray Disc™ Players from Sony.

This season's feature-packed Smart Blu-ray Disc™ Player line-up instantly adds presence to any living space. Confidently sculpted lines echo the Sense of Quartz styling that's a signature of this season's BRAVIA TV range.

Whether you're watching movies in 3D on Blu-ray Disc™ or your favourite DVD upscaled to Full HD, you'll enjoy supreme picture quality. Connect your Smart Blu-ray Disc™ player to the latest generation of BRAVIA LCD TVs with support for TRILUMINOS Display – you'll enjoy even more vibrant images with a richer, wider range of lifelike colours.

The new fully-enclosed optical drive maximises playback stability and now features even faster Quick Start Loading. Just slip in a disc and you're moments away from a more satisfying, immersive entertainment experience.

Connect to even more entertainment experiences with Wi-Fi

Built-in Wi-Fi on selected models connects you with an exciting world of online content and services. Wireless reception is improved compared with previous models for stronger, more stable access to streaming services...

even if your Wi-Fi hub is out in the hallway or in another room.

It's easy to explore a huge choice of content from Sony and other great names. One simple subscription to Sony Entertainment Network lets you enjoy thousands of on-demand movies and TV shows from Video Unlimited, or browse millions of songs and ad-free radio channels from Music Unlimited. Need even more entertainment? Access popular streaming services like LOVEFiLM and Netflix. Browse favourite web sites on the big screen while relaxing on the sofa. You can even join the conversation on social networking sites like Facebook and Twitter as you watch TV.

Stay in control with TV SideView

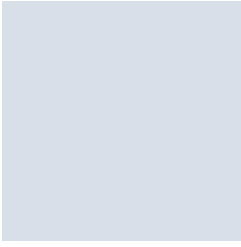

Control your Smart Blu-ray Disc™ Player (*1) from your Xperia Tablet, Xperia smartphone, iPhone or iPad with TV SideView. This free mobile app (Android or iOS) makes it easy to explore online services and discover more great content related to the disc or show you're watching. It's a supremely satisfying home entertainment experience... right at your fingertips. Busy doing something else? You can even control your Blu-ray Disc™ Player 'hands free' with voice commands.

The new the BDP-S1100, BDP-S3100, BDP-S4100 and BDP-S5100 Smart Blu-ray Disc™ Players by Sony are available from February 2013.
